

WA.COWORK.SEATTLE

A Co-Working Experience

The Department of Social and Health Services is offering a self-service, fee-for-use coworking space in downtown Seattle, three blocks from the King Street Station. WA.Cowork.Seattle is a place for any state employee to drop in and work downtown. It can reduce the need for agencies to lease space and support employees who work remotely. DSHS staff have free use of the facility with prior arrangements. Users from other agencies will need an agency agreement with DSHS to access the space. For more information contact wa.cowork.seattle@dshs.wa.gov.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Location

101 S. King St
Suite 400
Seattle, WA 98104

Hours

5 a.m. – 11 p.m.
Monday – Friday

Services

- Wi-Fi Access
- Computer Monitors
- Printing (not on network)
- Lockers
- Campus mail drop off on 4th floor lobby

Facility Use

WA.Cowork is a fee-for-use cowork facility for Washington state agencies only. Access agreements are typically annual and fees are based on the number of staff accessing the facility. For more details please contact wa.cowork.seattle@dshs.gov.

Building Access

WA.Cowork.Seattle is located on the 4th floor in a secured building. Once you have entered the building using an issued key card, the elevator and 4th floor do not require additional access.

Parking

There is no designated parking. Street parking and transit are available.

Downtown parking: <https://downtownseattle.com/parking/index.html>

Transit: <https://www.downtownseattle.com/transportation/>

